Foreword

The 1950 "Hayu Saghalie" has very earnestly tried to portray student life as it is lived in Monroe High School. It can in no way give a complete picture of the distressing, amusing, and interesting events that happened this year; but it has tried to touch all facets and highlight all experiences that may recall worthwhile memories to its owner in later years.

It is the privilege and pleasure of the Annual Staff to dedicate this year's edition of the "Hayu Saghalie" to the local fair officials who have so successfully initiated "The Evergreen State Fair" here in Monroe and to Dr. Stewart T. Piper, whose cheerful, gratuitous, and unhesitating care of twisted backs and "charlie horses" has endeared him to the coach and members of both the football and basketball teams.

BIG WHEELS

To the Senior Class:

For twelve years you have been helped and encouraged to prepare for adult life. As an adult you must make your own decisions and be responsible for your own welfare and the well-being of others, your responsibilities increasing as you grow older. The degree in which you fulfill these obligations will be your measure of success.

Your superintendent and the board of education congratulate you on your fine school citizenship and extend their best wishes for your future success.

Gerald D. Ladley, Supt.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS: Superintendent Gerald D. Ladley; Charles Taylor; Robert Sparks; Percy Dyer, Chairman; Duncan Barr; Lorraine Waisanen, secretary; Irving Scharf.

To the senior class may I say that this has been a most successful year. When you leave us, we hope you will carry a genuine love and respect for Monroe High School and a consciousness of the duty and responsibility that awaits each of you.

In the fall of 1947, seventy newly graduated freshmen eagerly crowded through the doors of Monroe Senior High School, with hopes of improving their minds by higher learning. They brought with them their motto, "My future is up to me; let me make the most of it."

During their sophomore year, Elmer Manoske was president, Ethylnn Davis, secretary; Jack Hensley, treasurer; and sophomore representatives for Student Council, LeRoy Anderson and Marilyn Knoshaug.

In their junior year, Marilyn Knoshaug was elected president, Ray Hagel, vice-president; Elmer Manoske, secretary; Dolores Mercer, treasurer. Quite a few exciting events happened during this year. A lovely Junior Prom was put on February twelfth, in the theme of "King Neptune's Garden." Following this on April eighth their hit play, "Cross My Heart," was presented. On April twenty-third, a banquet was held in honor of the seniors. Decorations followed the theme of the Senior Ball, "April Showers."

The last year in Monroe High School was an eventful one. On December second, the class play, "320 College Avenue," was presented under the direction of Miss Wicklund. On April fourteenth, the annual junior banquet was held in honor of the seniors. After the banquet everyone enjoyed the Senior Ball, which took place in fabulous "Blue Hawaii."

Among the numerous awards won by students, Ethylnn Davis was honored in winning the D.A.R. award.

GRIDSTERS' DATA

The "Bearcats" didn't fare too well in league play this year, winning two games, losing three, and tieing one. The expected successful year was hampered by several bad injuries. Jim Hinshaw, one of the league's best guards, was injured in an automobile accident and was out for the entire season. Herm Harvold, a star right end, had his knee injured in the second game and was out for the remainder of the season. Ray Hagel, the best blocker on the team, injured his knee and was out for a few games.

Despite all the bad luck, the Bearcat's coach, Morrie Hahn, whipped up a team that could play in anyone's league. Maybe they didn't win, but the victors were mighty glad they didn't have to face the fangs of the Bearcats again.

One of the highlights of the season came when the Hahn-tutored boys, tangling with the Irish from O'Dea, led by six points. Then "Horse" Hensley, of Monroe tackled an O'Dea man behind their goal to give Monroe a safety and two points. Up until just before the half, it was a seesaw battle with Monroe's line doing beautiful defense work; then O'Dea threw a long arching pass which went through one of the O'Dea men's hands into another Irisher's mitts to cost the Monroe boys six points.

The third period was a battle of lines until "PeeWee" Hester uncorked a sizzling pass, which Anderson took on his forty-five and romped to pay dirt. The game finally ended--O'Dea 12, Monroe 8.

In the traditional game with the Sultan "Turks", the Bearcats rang up 17 first downs to 3 for the visitors to cope a 14-0 win.

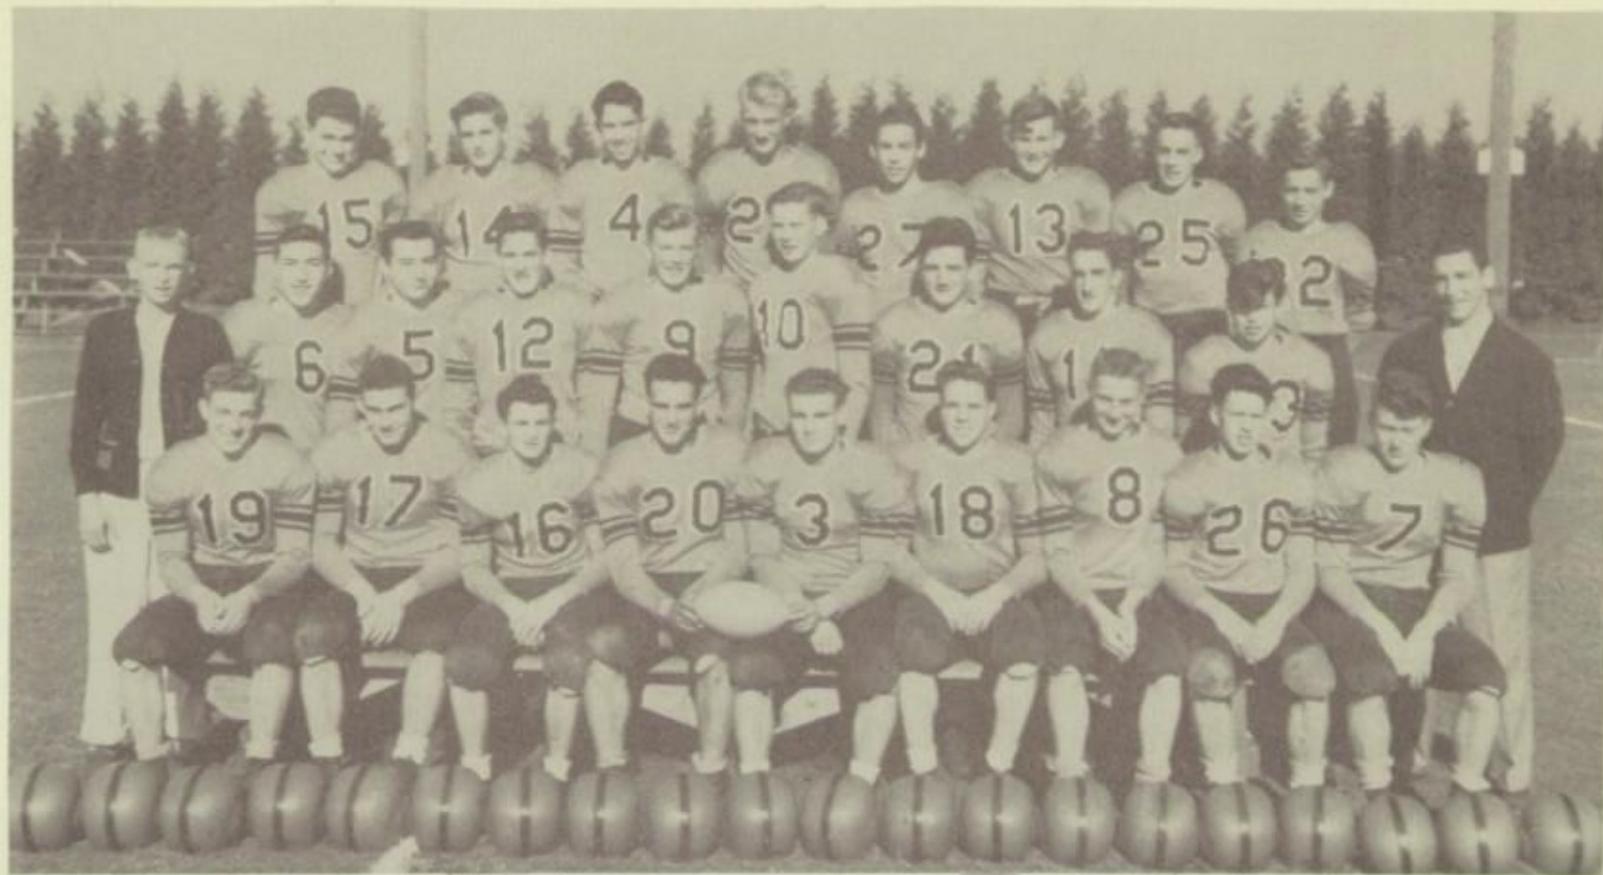

In the first quarter, the Bearcats on a sustained march drove to the Sultan's 30 yard line. From there left end Leonard Hammerquist took a lateral from Anderson and skirted his own right end in a naked reverse play for the Bearcat's first touchdown. In the third quarter, LeRoy Anderson climaxed a sustained drive by plunging from the five yard line to make it 13-0. Hensley smashed the Turks' line for the extra point to make it 14-0.

Next year the Bearcats will be without the services of two four year lettermen--LeRoy Anderson and Jack Hensley. They will also be hampered by the loss of Hester, Harvold, Hammerquist, Libby, Fulcher, Agostinelli, Hank Anderson, Connelly, and Hagel.

However, the Bearcats future looks very bright for the next football season with such outstanding football players as Hinshaw, Trombley, Hansen, Goebels, Rainwater, J. Sofie, and T. Sofie.

Local and student fans are looking forward to a successful season in '51.

"BASKETEERS OF '50"

Under the able coaching of Morrie Hahn, the hard fighting "Bearcats" showed courage and spirit, although winning only one league game and losing eleven. Most of the games were heartbreakers to lose, as the other team won by only two or three points.

Led by Captain Herm Harvold, who was elected by the other members of the team, the Bearcats dumped a favored Concrete team in one of the outstanding games of the year. After trailing for three quarters, the Monroe boys caught fire in the last quarter to snatch the game from the Concrete Lions to the tune of 45-43.

Next year, six lettermen will be back to bolster the hopes of Monroe. They are Jim Hinshaw, Stan Chapman, Guil Hansen, Bill Boyden, Dennis Janke, and Tom Sofie. The Bearcats of 1951 will miss the graduating seniors--Herm Harvold, Jim Valentine, and Leonard Hammerquist.

The highly rated second string was right on the top this year. They lost only four games and won fourteen. Next year all of these boys will be back to try for first string assignments, determined to make up in some measure for the hard luck of this year.

The election of officers for the school year was the main business at the first G.A. A. meeting. Officers are: president, Marilyn Knoshaug; vice pres., Idalee McManus; secretary, Neva Smith; and treasurer, Faye Durr. Advisor for the group is Mrs. Young, coach.

Speedball season, under the leadership of Marilyn Knoshaug, manager, and JoAnn Ohlsen, ass't manager, was off to a good start with sixty-six girls attending regular turnouts. Class captains and class teams were chosen, and many exciting games were played, with Senior girls winning the championship for the season. On October eighth, Monroe girls attended the All-County Sportsday, held at Edmonds.

Betty Broughton and Gerry Andrews acted as manager and ass't manager respectively for volleyball season, from which the juniors emerged champions. Twenty girls attended the volleyball playday, held at Snohomish on December third.

Managers for the basketball season were Shirley Lind and Neva Smith. The All-County Basketball Playday was held in Arlington on January twenty-eighth. On February seventeenth, G.A.A. initiates were in charge of concessions during the Twin City-Monroe game. The girls, dressed in jeans, plaid shirts, and slippers, went out among the audience selling candy, ice cream, and pop. The sock dance, held in the gymnasium following the game, was very successful. Basketball season ended, with the Sophomores champions of all class games played.

As spring rolled around, girls looked forward to the spring sports. Managers were chosen, and were kept busy with much activity during the season. Those acting as managers for these spring sports were: Tennis, Jeanette Santose and Sharon Preston; Ping Pong, Darlene Wolfe and Doris Dennis; Badminton, Betty Downing and Dolores Chaffee; Baseball, Louise Hammerquist and Carrine Trombley; and Track, Idalee McManus and Virginia Nickerson. Thirteen girls attended the County All-Sports playday, held at Marysville on March twenty-fifth.

Exhibitors at Puyallup were Paul Coy, Stan Chapman, Pat Ricci, Ted Ricci, Bob Ricci, and Bill Boyden. Monroe placed first but finished fourth and tenth in the fitting and showing contest.

Monroe F.F.A. was awarded the first place cup in the Herdsmanship Contest at Monroe and third at Puyallup.

Monroe's Livestock Judging Team judged in six contests during the year. They placed second in Guernsey cattle at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland.

The potato judging team placed third in the Snohomish Co. Contest.

The crops judging team placed fifth at the Western Washington Crops contest at Bellingham.

Exhibits at Evergreen State Fair were:

Twenty-five head of dairy cattle - fourteen blue ribbons, eight red ribbons, three white ribbons.

Swine: twelve blue ribbons, two red ribbons.

Beef: two red ribbons.

The principal of an exclusive girls' school is expecting an important addition to her faculty. Sir Hector Fish, a distinguished young scientist, is bringing with him the recently discovered mummy of King Tut's queen. Sir Hector arrives in a most unconventional fashion--inside the mummy case. The outcome to this proves very interesting and amusing.
